

Welcome to Metro STL

Presented to Life at Lafayette
December 13, 2022

Presentation Outline

- Introduction
- Transportation options offered by Metro
- Which one is best for me?
- How do I get started?
- Questions and Answers

Introduction

Amy Parker,
Director, ADA Services--ADA
Coordinator
adacoordinator@metroslouis.org
314-982-1525

Metro Transportation Options

MetroB<sup>us</sup>

Via Metro STL

MetroLink

Metro Call-A-Ride

Which one is best for me?

- Short answer—It depends!
- MetroBus and MetroLink operate on a schedule and take the same route each trip. Lowest cost option.
- Metro Call-A-Ride and Via Metro STL are shared ride services that do not always take the same route. Higher cost option.
- Via Metro STL operates in certain areas during certain times of day.
- Metro Call-A-Ride operates in the same areas as MetroBus and MetroLink, and is for people who have a disability that prevents them from using MetroBus or MetroLink.

How do I get started?

- Go to www.metrostlouis.org/accessibility/
- Via information is located here:
<https://www.metrostlouis.org/via/>
- Call the Transit Access Center at 314-982-1510 to
  - Get in touch with a travel trainer
  - Request a Reduced Fare application for MetroBus and MetroLink
  - Request an application to use Call-A-Ride for reduced fare.

